

SAN MARCOS FREE PRESS!

IT IS NOW ABOUT TWICE AS LARGE
 and contains FOUR TIMES as much Reading Matter as heretofore.

By comparison, it will be found nearly as large as the Galveston Daily News, and to contain about as much reading matter.

IT NOW GIVES
FULL GENERAL NEWS,
 as well as LOCAL,
 so its patrons will need to take no other newspaper.

Price the same—only TWO DOLLARS a year, postage free!
—SUBSCRIBE FOR IT!—

FREE PRESS.

I. H. JULIAN, Editor.

SAN MARCOS, TEXAS.

SATURDAY.....DECEMBER 29.

Official Paper of Hays and Blanco Counties.

HAYES is rapidly playing out politically.

FINANCIAL failures are still the order of the day.

THANKS to Hon. G. Schleicher for favors.

THE Rothschild case has again been continued, without reason, except to save the murderer from just punishment.

FROM LULING.—Dr. Day, well known in this vicinity, died suddenly on Wednesday morning.

A son of Rev. Mr. Greenwood was drowned in the San Marcos on Friday of last week.

THE United States Troops have assisted in the capture of the leaders of the San Elizario mob. Two were killed while resisting arrest, and two more lynched after being turned over to the State authorities.

H. O. FLIPPER, the colored West Point cadet, passed through Houston this week on his way to join the army at Fort Concho, holding the position of Second Lieutenant in the tenth cavalry regiment.

BOB INGERSOLL, the infidel statesman of Illinois, having been tendered the Berlin mission by President Hayes, declines to serve. Bob's labors in the last canvass were worth to Mr. Hayes at least a cabinet appointment.

CONGRESSMAN SCHLEICHER thinks the church party in Mexico would be glad of a war with the United States, for, in the almost certain acquisition of Mexican territory by the Americans, the Mexican Catholics would be protected in the possession of their church property, and also enabled to co-operate with American Catholics in the general building up and strengthening of the Roman cause in North America.

THE Brenham Banner and Lavange Record favor the whipping post for petty crimes. On principle we are opposed to anything of the kind on account of its debasing and brutalizing tendency, but if whipping posts were again to become a necessity, we would be in favor of that mode of punishment being applied to the greater criminals who steal their thousands and millions. Such a dispensation of justice would be more in accordance with our idea of the eternal fitness of things.—[Austin Capital.

Arrival of Troops at Brownsville.

BROWNSVILLE, Dec. 26.—The steamer Harlan arrived at Brazos yesterday morning with three companies of United States troops from New Orleans, which disembarked and reached this city by railroad last evening. They are the first of an additional force recently ordered to the Rio Grande, and are regarded as an evidence that the power of the government is to be in the future more effectively enforced on this frontier. The lower Rio Grande has been remarkably quiet for several months past—in fact since the raid on Rio Grande City jail, four months ago, there has been no depredation of any kind worthy of mention.

Late from Llano.

Capt. Davis, just from Llano, gives us the following information: New excitement upon the mining interest in that county has sprung up. Capt. Stephens, of Dallas, was in town when he left, who had already bought out what is known as the Owens Mine, belonging to Laurence Muller. The trade was for 640 acres of land, including the mine, for which Stephens is to pay $60,000 cash. The Hubbard Mine is again in operation, with fair prospects of success. Dr. C. S. Smith is opening a mine near the town of Llano, and is getting out some excellent silver ore, only about 50 feet deep; he has refused $25,000 for his mine including only about 10 acres. The crisis has arrived in Llano; large immigration into the county; the mines are a fixed fact; lands are selling briskly at an advanced price, and there is a great deal more attention given to agriculture, and the stock business is increasing rapidly, especially the sheep business. A number of large herds have been brought into the county recently. Llano, Capt. Davis thinks, bids fair to be one of the best counties in the State for all purposes, mining, stock raising and other occupations.

THE GALAXY for January is a number of unusual brilliancy. It has articles by Henry James, Jr., Lawrence Barrett, Julius Henri Browne, Theodore Bacon, J. H. Siddons, Walter Carey, Richard Grant White, and others. The most noticeable article is perhaps by Lawrence Barrett, on Charlotte Cushman. Hook, Thackeray, and Dickens are compared by Walter Carey. Paris is revisited by Henry James, Jr. "The Defeat of Justice" is described by Theodore Bacon. "The French Echantress," being Julie Recamier, is sketched by Junius Henri Browne. "Americanisms" are brought out by Richard Grant White. Several stories are furnished, and the Departments, Drift-Wood, Current Literature, Nebula, and Scientific Miscellany, are brighter and fresher than usual. On the whole, it is a good beginning for the new year.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE for January is the most superb number ever issued of that popular lady's book. There are two steel engravings, a double size Paris fashion plate, elegantly colored—about 50 engravings in all, besides a pattern supplement. The literary contents are by the best writers. We order Peterson.

BALLOU'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE FOR JANUARY.—The January number of this favorite magazine is a sample of what it will be the whole year—light, attractive, and a family friend, to be welcomed in every household, and read with pleasure by old and young. There is nothing like it in this country; for it is a marvel of cheapness and good taste with the most choice variety of reading-matter that can be found in any serial in this country. Now is a good time to subscribe for Ballou's, as it costs but a dollar and a half a year, and is postpaid at that. Just try it for a year. We will order it.

How to Redeem Lands Sold for Taxes.

AUSTIN, Nov. 1, 1877.

Tax collectors are instructed that lands which have been sold to the State for taxes of 1876, may be redeemed by the owners on the following terms:

1. The collector will require payment of double the amount of State and county taxes for which the land may have been sold, and all costs of sale and proceedings connected therewith. The collector will issue a memorandum receipt to the party redeeming and send copy thereof to this office, with such description of the land as appears on the assessment rolls. On the receipt of the copy of the tax receipt, with the description of the property redeemed, the collector will be charged on the books of this office with the amount of State taxes, and a certificate of redemption will be sent to the tax payer through the collector, and the sale will be cancelled on the record.

Respectfully,
 S. H. DARDEN,
 Comptroller.

As for this man Hayes himself, he has no idea of the significance or importance of events. He is a mere chip floating on the water.—Wendell Phillips.

A female justice-of-peace in Wyoming recently fined her husband heavily for flirting.

The United States in Paris.

PHILADELPHIA, December 26.—Mr. Rufus M. Smith has been appointed by ex-Governor McCormick as chief of the New York office to superintend the allotment of the space in the American section of the Paris exhibition. A private firm of this city is engaged to take charge of the American exhibits at the exposition. They say they have already secured representation of over fifty of the largest manufacturers in the United States.

Now is the time that most people renew their subscriptions to periodicals and newspapers. We propose from this time to do a general subscription business, and will furnish any one with ANY PUBLICATION PUBLISHED IN THE UNITED STATES, at publisher's prices. It taken in conjunction with the FREE PRESS, and the cash paid in advance, we will make a reasonable deduction. This will save to the subscriber the trouble of writing, hunting up proper funds to enclose, &c., and he can subscribe to any paper he may desire WITHOUT RISK, as we will guarantee the funds until the first number shall arrive; after that our responsibility will cease, as we cannot guarantee the regularity of the mails, or publishers' honesty in mailing their publications. Subscribe for any paper or periodical you want AT HOME.

Subscriber for January.

The January number begins and ends with a Christmas poem, at Myerson's opening ballad, "Jarl Sigurd's Christmas Eve," is the means of introducing to the magazine the pencil of Mrs. Mary Halliwell Foote, who has made a large illustration for this poem and is hereafter to contribute frequently. Another phase of the holiday feeling is given in Irving's "Christmas Eve in the Quarter," which reproduces an old-time scene in the South, and contains three separate dialect poems, with illustrations by Hopkins. "Fox-hunting in New England" may fairly be called a Christmas topic, and Mr. Howland E. Robinson discusses it with enthusiasm in an illustrated paper of fourteen pages. An anonymous paper on "Mr. Schumann's Music" reviews in a judicious vein the famous discoveries of that explorer, many of the objects, including some of the finest, being shown in the engravings. John Burroughs returns to his favorite topic in "Birds and Birds," for which Miss Bridges, who is so well known by her bird-pictures, has made several drawings. Holman's contribution a short poem entitled "A Dialogue of Youth," and Steadman another on "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max Holman," is called "The Growth of Youth," and is called "The Last Token," suggested by Max's picture of the same name, which is here engraved. There are also poems by H. H., Sidney Lanier, Paul H. Hayne, Mary E. Bradley, and others. The story of the number, by the elusive "Max